VILLAGE MISSIONS PRAYER SPOTLIGHT

Bob & Ruth Silver Lake Spokane, WA

We're ½-hour from Spokane in eastern WA. Several thousand people live within 5 miles of the church; most commute to Spokane for work. Four students from our local high school have died this year. Pray for students, families, and school staff as they deal with this loss. Our church is sponsoring a marriage seminar this fall as an outreach to the community. Pray that both churched and unchurched people will benefit. Last year our soccer camp/Vacation Bible School drew about 80 kids. Pray for a good response this August as we do it again.

The Consequences of Ignoring God

Read 2 Chronicles 33:1-19

The story of Manasseh, king of Judah, is an example of what happens when we ignore God. His life illustrates how rebellious actions bring far-reaching consequences to ourselves and others.

Hezekiah preceded Manasseh as ruler of Judah. 2 Chronicles 29:2 says Hezekiah "did right in the sight of the LORD." Instead of imitating his father's positive example, Manasseh disregarded the Lord's commands. He followed the ungodly practices of the surrounding nations. His list of sins is great. He defiled God's name and His temple. He also led the people far away from the Lord. God spoke to Manasseh and the people. But they paid no attention Him because they had become deaf to His voice.

The Lord brought judgment to both Manasseh and the nation he ruled. The Assyrians invaded Judah, humiliated the king, and made him their prisoner. In his suffering, Manasseh had a dramatic change of heart. The Lord heard his plea, saw his genuinely repentant heart, and restored him to the throne.

God's response gives hope to all of us. Our heavenly Father is merciful. He will listen and respond to our cries of true repentance. Manasseh proved his repentance by ridding the nation of idols and restoring worship to God alone. God expects us to change our ways, too.

Disregarding the Lord is a serious matter. We can lead family and friends astray by influencing them to follow suit. Confess how you've ignored God. Give Him your full attention today.
