VILLAGE MISSIONS PRAYER SPOTLIGHT

Guy & Geni Shields Shan Creek, OR

Our church is nestled in the wooded rolling hills of SW Oregon, within earshot of the Rogue River. Although our address is Grants Pass, we're 16 miles west of town and considered to be in the 'county.' This was a thriving logging area, but now tourism, retirees, and small businesses play a major part in the local economy. About 2,000 people live on Riverbanks Road in close proximity to the church. However, many properties are gated, making contact difficult. We use bulk mailings as one way to get information about the church into the homes. Pray that God will pour out His Spirit upon His people, that the life & ministry of SCCBC might be well-pleasing to Him and effective in the work of the Kingdom. It's a blessing to serve alongside so many faithful servants of the Lord. Many in this congregation are involved in ministry in the church, as well as serving in other ministries, like CEF, New Hope Christian School, and the Gospel Rescue Mission. Pray that more children/teens will come to Sunday School. Praise the Lord for a strong Awana ministry; ask the Lord to bring more children/teens from the Riverbanks Road community. Pray for the salvation of those who attend but do not yet trust Christ as their Savior. Pray for the believers to grow in their knowledge of our Lord and Savior and to bring honor and glory to His name as they walk faithfully with Him.

HAVE YOU EVER BEEN CARRIED AWAY FOR HIM?

"She hath wrought a good work on Me."

Mark 14:6

If human love does not carry a man beyond himself, it is not love. If love is always discreet, always wise, always sensible and calculating, never carried beyond itself, it is not love at all. It maybe affection, it may be warmth of feeling, but it has not the true nature of love in it.

Have I ever been carried away to do something for God not because it was my duty, nor because there was anything in it all beyond the fact that I love Him? Have I ever realized that I can bring to God things which are of value to Him, or am I mooning round the magnitude of His Redemption whilst there are any number of things I might be doing? Not Divine, colossal things which could be recorded as marvelous, but ordinary, simple human things which will give evidence to God that I am abandoned to Him? Have I ever produced in the heart of the Lord Jesus what Mary of Bethany produced?

There are times when it seems as if God watches to see if we will give Him the abandoned tokens of how genuinely we do love Him. Abandon to God is of more value than personal holiness. Personal holiness focuses the eye on our own whiteness; we are greatly concerned about the way we walk and talk and look, fearful lest we offend Him. Perfect love casts out all that when once we are abandoned to God. We have to get rid of this notion—"Am I of any use?" and make up our minds that we are not, and we may be near the truth. It is never a question of being of use, but of being of value to God Himself. When we are abandoned to God, He works through us all the time.
